On G.W.F Hegel and his Middle-Conservative Period

By Erav Mesraven

I. Jokes and Conversation Style

Philosophical jokes and conversation styles which then become daily analysis.

II. Absolute Idealism

A idealism of the absolute type.

III. Organised Practice on Newspapers which are Divine

Now organize this as newspaper quotations.

Example –

“I discern, a truly infinite quality in fine art, now apply your analysis, if fine art is so fine, we live the finest lives and have also truly infinite lives.”